- ▶ To access the back end of the platform and view the course, click on the button which appears after you log in, called “Access the platform”.

Platform

The first screen you'll encounter will be the list of courses you're enrolled on.

CAUTION!

If the button is not visible and you can't click it, this means the course is no longer available. Each course has a maximum availability period. If it's no longer available, contact the centre you purchased the course from to see how to proceed.

- ▶ Click "Enter the course" to view details regarding the training.

MAIN DATA

On the "Main data" screen, you'll be able to see useful information about the course (shown below).

- ▶ To start the course and view the educational material click on the "Online Material" panel.

ONLINE MATERIAL

In this section, you can start to take the course assigned to you.

You'll see all the chapters that make up the course, as well as what point you're at at any moment. You can suspend the course whenever you want. The system will resume from the point you stopped at the next time you access the course.

KEY

-  The chapter is blocked. You have to finish the chapter with the play symbol that
-  The chapter is active or has already been completed. You can always review completed chapters.

N.B. The chapters are set out in hierarchical order. You can't navigate freely between chapters. You have to follow a set order.

- ▶ Start to use the course by clicking the title of the available chapter (each chapter will become available after the previous one has been completed)

The screenshot shows a user interface for an online course. At the top, there are navigation links for 'Dashboard' and 'On line material'. The main heading is 'Workers' General Training'. Below this, there is a list of chapters. The first chapter, 'Programme - Workers' General Training', is highlighted with a blue box and a blue line pointing to the text above. Below it, a table shows the status of the course: 'Status: Completed', 'Started on: jan 30 2019 03:42 pm', 'Last login: jan 30 2019 03:42 pm', and 'ended on: jan 30 2019 03:42 pm'. The second chapter, 'Perception of the risk', is also visible. On the right side, there is a 'Status of your course: IN PROGRESS' section with a progress bar at 8%. Below this, there are three menu items: 'Teaching staff of the course' (Teachers, Tutor or other personnel assigned to this course), 'Course statistics' (View your educational statistics), and 'Activity Log' (View the log of your activities in this course). At the bottom right, it says 'Mode: Online'.

You can find several examples of teaching material:

- You must download the .pdf file if you see  Scarica il file . The system will download the file directly to your computer (if you can't find it, check your Downloads folder).

- You'll have to take the final test for the module/course when you see  Lancia il test . To check what you've learned so far, there is always a final test at the end of the course or module.

- ▶ Most of the course consists of slides containing audio and video content. You'll have to interact with the system and slides on a continuous basis to demonstrate an active level of participation.

TEST

During the course, you'll come across interim tests. These are not evaluated. They are only there to help you understand if you've really understood what you've read.

At the end of each course or module, you'll find the final test:

- You have 3 attempts to pass it.
- You have to answer at least 7 out of the 10 questions correctly.
- You have to wait at least 30 minutes between one attempt and the next, giving you the chance to review the chapters you haven't understood.

- ▶ You can download the final test at any time (whether you passed or failed). Enter the chapter reserved for the final test and select the "Archive" panel.

If you select a test you've done, you can see the answers you gave directly online or print them out.

TRAINING CERTIFICATE

Once you've completed 100% of the course, you'll see the button to generate the certificate and training booklet on the panel on the side of the screen.

By clicking the buttons, you can generate the documents and download them.

RECOVERING YOUR LOGIN CREDENTIALS

If you're already registered on the platform, you've already logged in for the first time or you're registered as a member in the AiFOS management system and you no longer remember your login credentials, you can use the appropriate form to recover them.

► To recovery it:

- Enter the login area of the site indicated in the e-mail as the platform address.
- Click the "Forgotten?" link next to the word Password.

- You will receive an e-mail containing a code necessary to recover password.

CAUTION! This code is not your new password but a code you'll need to enter in the window that opens up after you enter your e-mail address.

► Reset your password by clicking on your user panel.

The screenshot shows the 'Modifica accesso email' (Modify email access) form. It has a title bar with a close button. The form contains several fields: 'Nome utente' (username) with the value 'robertacir', 'E-Mail' with the value 'formazione.elearning@aifos.it', 'Password' and 'ripeti' (repeat) fields, and 'Fuso orario' (time zone) with 'Europe' and 'Rome' selected. The password fields are highlighted with a red box. At the bottom, there is a 'Conferma' (Confirm) button.
